GRAND CONCERT.-None of our readers who listened to the music of the Mount Washington Band, a few weeks ago, during its stay of a few hours here, will wish to be absent from the Concert at Academy Hall to-night. A band of blind musicians is a novelty, but added to the novelty is the pleasant fact that this band gives most excellent music, instrumental and vocal. The performers are all from the Perkins Institute for the Blind, in Boston, and patronage of the Blind, in Boston, and patronage of them, if they did not play at all, would his premises and the probable if not be a creditable charity; but inasmuch as they do play excellently, one will experience the pleasant sensation, while hearing them, that he has by the purchase of his tickets done well, and is tomed to manual labor. At the present time there is much competition among Lafe Insurance Companies, and many agents are far too regardless of the truth, in statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is all important for persons intending to insure their lives, to insure only with agents whom they know to be reliable, again it is always most satisfactory for parties assured to have their risks with Local agents, then there is no difficul-ty or danger of loss in transmitting premiums. Persons intending to insure their lives will find it for their advantage to see the agent of the Guardian Mutual before insuring elsewhere. d-31-4t. w-221-4w.
